

For Immediate Release: Letter from Paris by Thérèse

PRAISE for Thérèse:

- ~ “INDIA’S SUMMER is a furious, fast-paced, fun romp through the excesses of life in the Hollywood fast lane, with some thought-provoking wisdom interspersed throughout.” – Jane Green, New York Times bestselling author
- ~ “A book has an energy field all of its own and INDIA’S SUMMER has a really great one.” – Ekhart Tolle, spiritual leader and New York Times bestselling author
- ~ “INDIA’S SUMMER offers a timeless tale of women supporting one another – delivered in a way that makes it feel fresh, alive, and utterly of the moment.” – Arianna Huffington
- ~ “India’s fascinating character is what makes INDIA’S SUMMER a compelling read. She is trying to make a big shift in her life, in her career, in the choices she’s making. She’s funny, clever and vulnerable and you are rooting for her every step of the way.” – Goldie Hawn
- ~ “INDIA’S SUMMER avoids the familiar clichés of LA and yet captures the character of the city so well.” – Orlando Bloom

We are extremely excited to announce the publication of Thérèse’s new novel, LETTER FROM PARIS, coming from The Story Plant on June 10, 2014. With this release, Thérèse—the celebrity-acclaimed author of INDIA’S SUMMER—has penned a novel that is a perfect match for fans of women’s contemporary fiction and those who enjoyed books like Bridget Jones’s Diary.

India Butler’s journey to America put her life on a new track. Now a trip to Paris threatens to derail her – or to to make things all they are supposed to be. With a new friend, a new job, a new lover . . . and an old lover, India is dealing with nearly as much as she can handle. But that’s only the beginning.

The infectious sequel to INDIA’S SUMMER, LETTER FROM PARIS is witty, glamorous, incisive, and refreshingly real.
